FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL COUNTS

18 11. Plaintiff is the owner of the famous AAA mark, U.S. service mark
19 Registration No. 0,829,265, used in connection with a number of automobile related 20 services, including but not limited to conducting motor vehicle tests. A copy of this 21 registration is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

22 12. Plaintiff is the owner of the famous AAA mark (stylized logo), U.S.
23 service mark Registration No. 2,158,654, used in connection with a number of 24 automobile related services, including but not limited to conducting motor vehicle
25 tests. A copy of this registration is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

26 13. Plaintiff is the owner of numerous other famous registered trademarks
27 incorporating the AAA marks in the United States and throughout the world.

28 14. Plaintiff has been serving motorists under the AAA mark of 1 Registration No. 0,829,265 for more than 100 years.

2 15. At all relevant times hereto, defendants have been and are in the 3 business of conducting motor vehicle tests using the AAA marks. Defendants use
 4 the AAA marks in conducting and promoting their business, including, without 5 limitation, by displaying signage on the premises, windows, and business cards of 6 K & M Auto bearing the AAA marks.

7 16. Defendants are not authorized to use the AAA marks in connection
 8 with their goods or services, nor are defendants currently affiliated with Plaintiff.

9 17. Plaintiff sent multiple cease-and-desist letters to defendants, including 10 on December 21, 2016 and March 1, 2017, giving notice of Plaintiff's ownership of 11 federally registered service marks and demanding that defendants immediately cease
 12 and desist from all uses of the AAA marks in connection with their goods and 13 services.

14 18. Despite Plaintiff's repeated demands, defendants have failed to cease
 15 and desist from all uses of the AAA marks in connection with their goods and 16 services. Defendants continue to use the AAA marks in promoting their business.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Federal Service Mark Infringement – 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1)(a) and (b))

19 19. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates herein by reference each and every 20 allegation contained in Paragraphs 1 through 18 above, inclusive, as though fully set
 21 forth herein.

22 20. Plaintiff is the owner of a number of federal trademark and service
 23 mark registrations that incorporate the AAA marks and specifically asserts 24 ownership of the following:

Registration No.	Mark	Date of Registration
0,829,265	AAA	May 23, 1967
2,158,654	AAA (Stylized Logo)	May 19, 1998

28 21. Plaintiff first used the AAA mark of Registration No. 0,829,265 at least

1 as early as 1903 and has continued and expanded use thereof up to the present.
 2 Thus, long before the acts complained of herein, motorists and members of the 3 general consumer population in the United States and across the world have 4 recognized the AAA mark as an exclusive source identifier for automobile related
 5 services originating from Plaintiff, including but not limited to conducting motor
 6 vehicle tests.

7 22. Plaintiff first used the AAA mark (stylized logo) of Registration No.
 8 2,158,654 in connection with automobile related services at least as early as March 9 1, 1997, and has continued and expanded use thereof up to the present. Thus, long
 10 before the acts complained of herein, motorists and members of the general
 11 consumer population in the United States and across the world have recognized the 12 AAA mark (stylized logo) as an exclusive source identifier for automobile related
 13 services originating from Plaintiff, including but not limited to conducting motor
 14 vehicle tests.

15 23. Plaintiff's registered service marks identified above are valid and 16 subsisting and remain in full force and effect as evidence of the validity thereof and 17 Plaintiff's ownership of the marks in connection with the services specified in the 18 registration.

19 24. As a result of the long period of use and extensive advertisement and 20 sale of services under the AAA and AAA (stylized logo) marks, motorists and 21 members of the general consumer population in the United States and across the 22 world recognize the AAA and AAA (stylized logo) marks as exclusive source
 23 identifiers for automobile related services originating from Plaintiff, including but 24 not limited to conducting motor vehicle tests.

25 25. Defendants' use of the AAA marks in interstate commerce in 26 connection with their goods and services is causing and will continue to cause a 27 likelihood of confusion, mistake, and deception with respect to: (a) the source and 28 origin of the goods and services offered by defendants; (b) the affiliation,

1 connection, and association of Plaintiff with defendants; and (c) Plaintiff's 2 sponsorship, approval, and/or control of the goods and services offered by 3 defendants, all in violation of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. section 1114(1)(a) and (b).

4 26. On information and belief, defendants are now committing the acts
 5 complained of above and have continued to do so in defiance of Plaintiff's requests
 6 that they cease such acts.

7 27. Defendants' acts and conduct constitute federal service mark
 8 infringement that has caused and, unless restrained and enjoined by this Court, will 9 continue to cause a likelihood of consumer confusion, mistake, and deception.

10 28. On information and belief, defendants' acts of service mark
 11 infringement in violation of the Lanham Act have caused financial injury and 12 damages to Plaintiff and have been willful, making this an exceptional case within
 13 the meaning of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. section 1117, thereby entitling Plaintiff
 14 to damages, attorneys' fees, and costs.

15 29. Plaintiff is entitled to damages as a result of defendants' actions and
 16 conduct and, because such damages alone do not provide Plaintiff with an adequate
 17 remedy at law, Plaintiff is also entitled to injunctive relief.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Unfair Competition by False Designation of Origin – 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))

19 30. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates herein by reference each and every 20 allegation contained in Paragraphs 1 through 29 above, inclusive, as though fully set
 21 forth herein.

23 31. Defendants, either independently or through collaboration with one 24 another, are using the AAA marks in connection with their goods and services.

25 32. On information and belief, defendants use the AAA marks in 26 commerce, which use has been done with the deliberate intent of capitalizing and 27 trading on the good will and reputation of Plaintiff.

28 33. The use in commerce of the AAA marks by defendants will tend to 1 cause and, on information and belief, has caused the relevant public and trade to 2 believe erroneously that defendants' goods and services are associated, authorized,

 3 sponsored, or controlled by Plaintiff.

4 34. Defendants' use in commerce of the AAA marks in connection with 5 their goods and services constitutes a false designation of the origin and/or 6 sponsorship of such goods and services and falsely describes and represents such 7 goods and services.

8 35. By their acts as alleged herein, defendants have falsely designated and 9 represented goods and services sold in commerce in violation of 15 U.S.C. section
 10 1125(a) and have otherwise used the good will of Plaintiff to sell defendants' own
 11 goods and services and have otherwise competed unfairly with Plaintiff.

12 36. On information and belief, defendants are now committing the acts
 13 complained of above and have continued to do so in defiance of Plaintiff's request
 14 that they cease such acts.

15 37. Defendants, after due notice, have displayed a willful course of conduct 16 toward appropriation and destruction of Plaintiff's rights in and to the AAA marks.

17 38. Defendants' wrongful acts and conduct as alleged herein have 18 permitted or will permit them to generate substantial sales and profits on the 19 strength of Plaintiff's substantial advertising, sales, consumer recognition, and good 20 will in connection with the AAA marks.

21 39. As a result of defendants' wrongful acts alleged herein, Plaintiff has 22 suffered and will continue to suffer monetary damage in an amount not thus far 23 determined.

24 40. On information and belief, defendants' acts of unfair competition by 25 false designation of origin in violation of the Lanham Act have caused financial 26 injury and damages to Plaintiff and have been willful, making this an exceptional
 27 case within the meaning of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. section 1117, thereby
 28 entitling Plaintiff to damages, attorneys' fees, and costs.

1 41. Defendants' acts and conduct constitute unfair competition that has 2 caused and, unless restrained and enjoined by this Court, will continue to cause
3 irreparable harm, damage, and injury to Plaintiff's good will and business 4 reputation.

5 Plaintiff is entitled to damages as a result of defendants' actions and
6 conduct and, because such damages alone do not provide Plaintiff with an adequate
7 remedy at law, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Trade Name or Service Mark Dilution – 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)(1))

10 43. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates herein by reference each and every
11 allegation contained in Paragraphs 1 through 42 above, inclusive, as though fully set
12 forth herein.

13 44. Plaintiff's AAA trade name and service marks were used in commerce 14 long before defendants' adoption and use of AAA marks in connection with their 15 goods and services.

16 45. Plaintiff's AAA trade name and service marks have become famous 17 because of long, extensive, continuous, and exclusive use by Plaintiff in connection
18 with automobile related services, such fame occurring long before defendants'
19 adoption and use of the AAA marks in connection with their goods and services.

20 46. Defendants use the AAA marks in promoting their goods and services
21 in the same trade areas and channels of trade in which Plaintiff's AAA trade name 22 and service marks are recognized and famous.

23 47. On information and belief, defendants' use of the AAA marks has 24 lessened the capacity of Plaintiff's famous AAA trade name and service marks to 25 identify and distinguish Plaintiff's goods and services.

26 48. On information and belief, Defendants' acts and conduct as alleged 27 herein have tarnished the reputation and recognition of Plaintiff's famous AAA
28 trade name and service marks by the low quality of defendants' goods and services.

1 49. On information and belief, defendants' acts of trade name or service
2 mark dilution in violation of the Lanham Act have caused financial injury and
3 damages to Plaintiff and have been willful, making this an exceptional case within
4 the meaning of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. section 1117, thereby entitling Plaintiff
5 to damages, attorneys' fees, and costs.

6 50. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law and is being irreparably
7 damaged by dilution of its famous mark, in violation of 15 U.S.C. section 1125(c).
8 Therefore, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Injury to Business Reputation and Dilution –

Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 14247)

12 51. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates herein by reference each and every
13 allegation contained in Paragraphs 1 through 50 above, inclusive, as though fully set
14 forth herein.

52. Plaintiff is the owner of marks that are distinctive and famous in the State of California.

17 53. On information and belief, defendants have used and continue to use 18 the famous AAA marks after the marks became famous, which use dilutes the 19 distinctive quality of Plaintiff's marks.

20 54. On information and belief, defendants' actions described herein were 21 taken and continue to be taken with full knowledge that such actions would and do
22 dilute the AAA marks and with the intention to cause dilution of the marks.

23 55. As a result of the actions described herein, defendants have caused, and 24 unless restrained and enjoined by this Court, will continue to cause irreparable harm,
25 damage, and injury to Plaintiff, including but not limited to injury to Plaintiff's good 26 will and business reputation.

56. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law and is being irreparably damaged by defendants' acts in violation of California Business & Professions Code

1 section 14247.

2 FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

3 (Common Law Trade Name and Trademark Infringement,
4 and Unfair Competition)

5 57. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates herein by reference each and every
6 allegation contained in Paragraphs 1 through 56 above, inclusive, as though fully set
7 forth herein.

8 58. Defendants' actions and conduct as alleged herein constitute unfair
9 competition under California common law.

10 59. Defendants' actions and conduct in adopting and using the AAA marks
11 in California constitute trademark infringement under California common law.

12 60. Defendants have caused and, unless restrained and enjoined by this 13 Court, will continue to cause irreparable harm, damage, and injury to Plaintiff,
14 including but not limited to injury to Plaintiff's good will and business reputation.

15 61. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law, and Plaintiff is being 16 irreparably damaged by defendants' acts in violation of California common law,
17 entitling Plaintiff to injunctive relief.

18 62. Defendants' actions and conduct as alleged herein are malicious and 19 fraudulent and entitle Plaintiff to punitive damages under Civil Code section 3294.

20 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

21 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for an order and judgment against defendants, 22 and each of them, as follows:
